• "Anansi and Turtle and Pigeon"
Turtle badly wants to learn to fly, but almost ends up being soup!

• "The Barking Mouse"
A bilingual tale from Cuba – how can Mama Mouse scare away the cat?

• "Nyangara the Python"
The village children are the chief's last hope to bring his fearsome healer.

"Ground Hog"
(what makes your back so brown?)
Traditional folk song accompanied by the twanging mouth bow.

• "We're Going On A Bear Hunt"
A rollicking call-and-response story / movement activity – acting out different stages of our fearless journey to a bear cave, and hilariously hurried retreat.

• Stories and songs accompanied by hammered & mountain dulcimers, limberjack, conga drum, mouthbow, and guitar

For over 35 years, Tim has been delighting and captivating audiences all over the country, weaving together tales, tunes, and songs. He's been selected for the New England States Touring Program (www.nefa.org), the New Hampshire State Library's "Kids, Books, and the Arts" Program, and the Massachusetts Cultural Council's STARS Residency Program. He's gotten rave reviews from Children's Librarians on Massyac.
